

What pruning actually removes: the step gap between a pruned entry and its substitute

Gap = remaining steps of the pruned entry minus remaining steps of the kept neighbour it was judged redundant against (same task, other trajectory, retrieval score above the threshold).